

Judicial Review in a Digital Age

11am-5pm, 3rd June 2019

Gilly Leventis Meeting Room, The Bonavero Institute of Human Rights

LIBERTY

Bonavero
Institute of Human Rights

Public
Law
Project

11am: Arrival

11:30am: Welcome from Public Law Project, Liberty and Bonavero Institute

12pm: Panel One: Automated decision-making and the public sector: what are the key challenges?

- Dr Reuben Binns, Researcher, Computer Science, University of Oxford
- Dr Sandra Wachter, Research Fellow, Oxford Internet Institute, University of Oxford
- Michael Veale, Ph.D Researcher, UCL Department of Science, Technology, Engineering and Public Policy, University College London

1:30pm: Lunch

2pm–4pm: Panel Two: Judicial review and automated decision-making: what are the key challenges?

- Dr Jennifer Cobbe, Coordinator, Cambridge Trust & Technology Initiative, University of Cambridge
- Marion Oswald, Senior Fellow, Department of Law, University of Winchester
- Dr Paul Daly, University Senior Lecturer in Public Law, University of Cambridge
- Dr Joe Tomlinson, Lecturer in Public Law, King's College London, Research Director, Public Law Project
- Dr Adam Harkens, Queen's University Belfast

4pm: Break

4:15pm–4:30pm: Closing remarks